13. How are teams timed? We use the ChampionChip Timing System to electronically record your team's time. You will be assigned one timing chip for your team at the start of the event. The chip will be attached to one member's ankle and will be collected at the Finish Line. Your team will be charged a $30 fee if the chip is not returned.
14. Do teams have to stay together? Yes, teams are required to complete obstacles together and all team members MUST cross the finish line.
15. Do all team members have to complete each obstacle? Yes, all team members must complete each obstacle. If they are unable to complete the obstacle, a penalty of one minute will be deducted from the team's time.
16. Do all team members need to sign a Waiver? Yes, after you register please have your team sign a waiver and bring it with you to the event. Click here www.theorun.com/pdfs/waiver.pdf to download the Waiver. O-Run participants under the age of 18 must have a parent sign the Waiver. If the parent will not be present at the event, participants under the age of 18 must have their parent sign the Waiver prior to the event and have it NOTARIZED.

17. Are we allowed to bring coolers? No coolers are allowed at the event.
18. Are alcoholic beverages allowed or available? Beer will be sold at the event to participants over 21 years of age after the race. However, we do encourage each team to designate a driver to make sure everyone gets home safely. Sorry, no cabs will be available. Coolers are prohibited.
19. What happens if we were a team of four but someone backs out or is sick the day of the race? You can run with three members, but you get a 10-minute penalty! If you are able to find a replacement, bring the new person with a signed waiver to the event and you are all set!
20. After a teammate has already cleared the wall obstacle, can another teammate go back around and help the other teammates? You are not officially allowed to go back and help BUT if the supervisor of the obstacle observes a team trying and struggling to get the fourth person over, they will sometimes allow you to go back and assist. It is a 1-minute per infraction cited by the race official. And it is up to the obstacle supervisor.
21. What if I have a question that is not answered here? Please email us at info@eggplantevents.com, and we will add it to this list.
